Liquor Ice Cream Débuts in Tokyo

TOKYO, JAPAN – Blend's® Liquor Ice Cream is debuting for the first time in Japan on February 1st Wednesday through the 3rd Friday, 2012 at JSSA, the 46th Annual Super Market Trade Show; held in Tokyo, Japan at the Tokyo International Exhibition Center (Tokyo Big Sight), East Halls. Blend's® will be in the USA Pavilion in booth number 6-205 (East Hall #6). The organizer is the New Supermarket Association of Japan (NSAJ) a benevolent corporation that has a close relationship with the Ministry of Economy, Industry and Trade. Half of all supermarkets in Japan are the members of NSAJ, whose total revenue comes to 10 trillion JPY. It is the biggest food related supermarket association in Japan. The 46th Annual Super Market Trade Show is open to the trade of approximately 410 supermarkets / 7,000 shops and about 700 supporting members - manufacturers, wholesalers and related companies, from all across Japan.

Blend's® Liquor Ice Cream is a frozen solid value-added dairy product that contains 20% distilled spirits (real liquors and liqueurs), with the flavor/type depending upon which cocktail flavor, and, 80% super-premium ice cream. The new technology was originally invented by leading Food Scientists at the University of Minnesota, Pilot Plant, at the Department of Food Science in 1994. See www.blendsicecream.com for more...
